

Autism Training Mini-Grant Opportunity

Thirty grants are available in amounts up to $1,500 per grant to host autism training efforts within North Dakota. An individual agency or organization may apply for one grant per human service region. Preference will be given to projects that include new training efforts. Mini-grants cannot be used as sustaining funds for existing programs; existing entities must use the funds to enhance or improve projects.

Examples of appropriate uses for the grants are:

- Provider autism training
- Parent education efforts
- Parent support efforts
- First-responder training
- Peer-to-peer education

DEADLINES:

Grant applications are being accepted now through June 1, 2015. All events must be completed by June 30, 2015, with event reports and reimbursement requests received by July 1, 2015.

Applications for the grants can be found online at www.nd.gov/dhs/autism.
